

ANTITRUST LITIGATION

Hall Render's breadth and depth of health care knowledge and experience includes representation of health care entities in antitrust matters, from joint venture and provider network deals to investigation and litigation. Hall Render's Health Care Antitrust Practice is led by an experienced Senior Trial Attorney from the Antitrust Division's Health Care Task Force of the United States Department of Justice. The practice includes an experienced team of antitrust attorneys and litigators prepared to assist health care clients in every aspect of antitrust law.