

IT PROCUREMENT

The information technology (IT) attorneys at Hall Render have experience in a broad array of IT procurement areas, including complex EHR software integrations, health information exchanges (HIE), supply chain structure and operations, outsourcing arrangements, website development and agreements related to expanding the Internet infrastructure for health systems, including IRUs. Hall Render counsels clients from the vendor selection process through negotiation and completion of the transaction.

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Contract Negotiation and Drafting
- Information Technology